

Legal Action of Wisconsin - Oshkosh

Visit Website

Legal Action of Wisconsin (LAW) is a non-profit law firm providing free civil legal services. They provide full representation, brief advice, and easy-to-understand resources to people who would otherwise face their legal problem alone in the following areas: housing, employment, debt & taxes, public benefits, family law, and victim support. They have staff to work with specific populations, including veterans, seniors, farmworkers, people who use drugs or are in recovery, students, and those near release or recently released from prison.

Legal Action of Wisconsin advocates provide free and confidential civil legal services to agricultural workers throughout Wisconsin.

Because they serve rural counties and the travel times may be very long, they do encourage people to call before traveling to the Oshkosh office. However, it is not required.

How to Get Service

You can request help 24/7 by filling out an online intake form. If your legal issue aligns with LAW's priorities and availability, you'll have the option to schedule an appointment for a detailed review before they decide if they're able to take your case.

Call LAW's Intake (screening) Unit at 855-947-2529 on weekdays between 9 and 4 to complete an intake over the phone. Remember to be in a quiet and safe place for an effective conversation. Plan to call when you have time - it takes about 20 minutes to apply for legal services. Intake staff will need to ask you questions about your income, assets, household size, and the details of your legal issue before determining if LAW can help. If you only have a couple of minutes or are expecting another call, LAW might not be able to help you and you will have to call back. Please do not be driving while attempting to complete an intake – LAW may have info that you need to write down, or provide to them from documents.
