

Aging and Disability Resource Center of Washburn County

Visit Website

The Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) of Washburn County has Elderly and Disability Benefit Specialists. Private and Government benefit programs can often be difficult and confusing. The Benefit Specialists can provide current accurate information about these programs, counsel individuals about eligibility and benefits and assist with applying or denial of benefits. The Elderly Benefit Specialist can provide benefits counseling for residents 60 years of age or older. The Disability Benefit Specialist can currently provide benefits counseling for adults between the ages of 18 to 59 with physical disabilities, developmental disabilities, and mental illness.

Some areas and programs the Benefit Specialists may be able help you with:

- FoodShare
- Medicare & Medicaid
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Social Security Disability Income (SSDI)
- Housing & Utility Issues
- Prescription Drug Assistance
- Private Health and Disability Insurance Issues
- Limited tax issues (property-tax deferral, homestead tax credit, low-income tax credit)
