Other Eligibility

You may be eligible for free legal help* through Judicare Legal Aid if you are a U.S. citizen or lawfully residing in the United States and:

- Live in one of the 33 northern counties of Wisconsin OR
- Are a victim of crime OR
- Are an enrolled member of a Native American tribe AND

- Meet limits on the value of your property and have low income, defined as a percentage (<125%) of the federal poverty guidelines.

*Incarcerated individuals may receive legal advice, if eligible, but cannot receive full representation.

There are exceptions to our citizenship requirement for individuals who are victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or human trafficking.

Please note: certain projects do not have income or asset limits for eligibility. Furthermore, there are many factors that contribute to the calculation of household income and eligibility, so please apply even if you may be above these guidelines. Apply to see if you are eligible.
