The UW Consumer Law Clinic Garnishment Relief Project provides legal assistance to Wisconsin residents:

- who are being sued for consumer debt
- whose wages are being garnished or are at risk of being garnished
- who may be experiencing unfair debt collection practices

Get information about:

- The wage garnishment process and possible exemptions
- The forms you must fill out and give to your employer if you qualify for an exemption
- An option for relief if you do not qualify for an exemption

Recibir información de:

- El proceso de embargo de salario y posibles exenciones
- Las formas que debe completar y entregar a su empleador si califica para una exención
- Una opción de alivio si no califica para una exención

Important: The CLC does not provide information, assistance, or referrals for bankruptcy.
